

Winter MEETING

On February 10-11 held during the 2017 NRHA Winter Meeting youth members challenged themselves to learn more about their true self during the NRHyA's Leadership Development Workshop. Students came out of the workshops with a better understanding of their strengths and how to use those strengths to better themselves in the future.

EMILY SCHAEFER

NRHyA Vice President Kenleigh Wells and NRHyA Delegate Ashton Knerr learned about each other's strengths during the leadership workshop.

EMILY SCHAEFER

From (L-R) NRHyA Historian Reagan Stephens, NRHyA Delegate Shelby Lukes, NRHyA Delegate Olivia Klug, NRHyA Vice President Kenleigh Wells and NRHyA Member Kate Lilley.

EMILY SCHAEFER

2017 NRHyA Officers: From (L-R) Taylor Masson, Secretary; Kenleigh Wells, Vice President; Morgan Knerr, President; Elizabeth Blaser, Treasurer; and Reagan Stephens, Historian.

"I believe as officers we can use our own strengths to make a stronger and more compassionate leadership team for others," said NRHyA Secretary Taylor Masson. "We can use our strengths to get more regions and youth involved with the NRHyA."

Youth officers, regional delegates, and interested youth members attended this year's NRHyA Leadership workshop to develop stronger leadership skills and learn about using their personal strengths to their greatest potential. ♦